Blackmail Plot Traps Hoodlum Prominent Detroit Picked As Victim

DETROIT—(P)—A cheap attempt at blackmail was disclosed today as the factor that led to hoodlum Dave Mazeroff's arrest.

Mazeroff, 50, sought for two years for further questioning in the State Sen. Warren G. Hooper ambush murder of 1945, was seized on a Detroit street Tuesday night.

Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien said that Mazeroff and his young woman companion had plotted with two other persons to blackmail a "prominent Detroit citizen."

The plot was to extort money from the latter on a charge that he had raped the woman.

O'Brien said friends of the woman had arranged a contact between her and Mazeroff and that the four set about in their scheme. It was later abandoned, however, O'Brien said.

O'Brien said he would ask conspiracy warrants against Mazeroff and the woman and the two others.

Mazeroff, once named as the triggerman in the Hooper murder was arrested with the woman after their car ran into a utility pole.

Police said he and the woman had argued and the woman had wrenched the wheel of the car.

O'Brien said the woman declared that Mazeroff had identified himself to her as a "hot package" and that he was involved in the Hooper shooting.

Ann Arbor Teachers To Get $200 Raise

ANN ARBOR—(P)—Ann Arbor public school teachers, buildings and grounds workers and library personnel—325 persons in all—will get a $200 a year cost-of-living pay boost for the balance of this year.

The Ann Arbor school board yesterday announced it would use $77,000 that had been earmarked to balance the current budget for the pay boost will be effective only until January.

Strangled In Tree

TROY, N. Y.—(P)—Marilyn Ridgeway, 4, fell from a tree limb yesterday and was strangled in the branches that broke her fall.

Mrs. William R. Ridgeway said she found her daughter's body in the tree, about six feet above the ground.

Russia Sees Menace Of Re-Militarization In Western Germany

By WILLIAM OATIS

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia—(P)—Following her sharp warning that she would not tolerate re-militarization of western Germany, Russia met with her European Allies today to discuss that explosive subject.

The meeting was called by the Soviet union, which sent deputy Prime Minister V. M. Molotov as its spokesman. Molotov is a former Soviet foreign minister.

Moscow radio and the official Czechoslovak news agency reported the seven-nation meeting started yesterday. Deputy Prime Minister Zdenek Fierlinger, representing Czechoslovakia, opened the conference and was elected chairman.

No National Army

Molotov flew in from Moscow by special plane. Other foreign delegates had already arrived and met him at Prague's flag-decorated Ruzyně airport.

They were foreign ministers Mincho Neychev of Bulgaria; Zygmunt Modzelewski of Poland; Gyula Kallai of Hungary; Ana Pauker of Romania; George Derfingier of Eastern Germany and V. Natanajli, Albanian minister to Moscow.

An official announcement in Prague said the ministers would "discuss questions which arose in connection with the decision of the New York conference of the three powers—France, Britain and the United States—Sept. 19 which discussed the remilitarization of Germany."

(The big three foreign ministers announced Sept. 19 they had agreed to strengthen Germany economically and defensively and allow it a "mobile police force.")

Fast Hurricane Spares Florida

High Wind Fizzes
In Tampa Swamps

TAMPA, Fla.—(P)—A nuisance hurricane which failed to live up to advance billing fizzled out in a Florida wilderness today.

The rich Tampa bay resort area, once threatened with a possible knockout punch, escaped entirely.

The Florida highway patrol said the storm hit inland just north of Cedar Key, the fishing village devastated by the Labor Day hurricane.

Winds were well below the 75 mile an hour minimum for a hurricane. Apparently the once threatening blow was breaking up harmlessly in a section of swamps and woodland some 100 miles north of Tampa.

The storm, rated at 75 to 90 miles an hour, had been pointed slam bang at Tampa, largest city on the Florida west coast (population 125,000). Then it lost steam and veered north.

Meteorologist W. W. Talbott of the Tampa weather bureau said he believed a mass of dry air over the area caused the storm to disintegrate.

Foundry Moved

Choice Of UN Secretary Not Easy To Settle

By STANLEY JOHNSON
LAKE SUCCESS—(P)—Two vital problems are before the United Nations today.

The security council meets behind closed doors for another round in the battle over who should be secretary general. The 60-Nation Political committee is scheduled to vote on a Syrian-Iraq proposal calling for Big Five peace consultations. (Both meetings 11 a. m. EST.)

Compromise Spurned
India has a compromise proposal before the council under which each of the 11 members would put two names in a secret ballot box. The Big Five then would knock out the names of those they could not approve and the council would pick a successor to Secretary General Trygve

Shy Dionnes Face Pop Of Flash Guns On Sightseeing Trip

NEW YORK—(P)—The Dionne quintuplets, shy but smiling, faced up like veterans before the pop of photo flash guns as they got in their first good look at big city sights yesterday.

The 16-year-old quintets—Yvonne, Mari, Cecile, Emile and Annette—were accompanied on the tour by 11 classmates from Villa Notre Dame high school near their home town of Callendar, Ont.

With Francis Cardinal Spellman as their host, the celebrated sisters sandwiched in sightseeing with a radio broadcast, a visit to St. Vincent's hospital, and posed holding babies at the New York Foundling hospital.

About 1,500 onlookers and scores of camera fans greeted their appearance at Rockefeller Center.

Credit Buying May Be Tightened More To Check Inflation

WASHINGTON—(P)—Presidential assistant John R. Steelman feels that still tighter curbs on installment buying may be imposed by the government to combat inflation.

Moreover, he told the Mt. Holyoke Alumnae association last night, that other types of controls "may become necessary."

Steelman's hint at new restrictions came at the end of a day during which:

1. The national production authority (A) restricted rubber companies in their use of materials and (B) set aside for the defense program the entire production of stainless steel containing columbium.

2. The commerce department ordered a ban on all exports of molasses, a principal source of industrial alcohol.

The rubber order limits tire manufacturers and other users to 75 per cent of the amount of natural rubber they consumed in the year ended June 30. It sets consumption of all rubber, including synthetic, at 84 per cent of the base year's use.

Officials said this would give manufacturers about the same amount of rubber they were getting before the Korean war. They renewed assurances that no tire shortage is in sight.

The action on molasses fits into the rubber picture since alcohol is used in great quantities by the synthetic rubber plants which the

Freed Youth Returns To Grand Rapids Jail With Hacksaw Blades

GRAND RAPIDS—(P)—Gordon Empe, 17, walked out of jail yesterday and was immediately detained on a return visit.

Deputy Sheriff Jack West said that hacksaw blades were found in the Cedar Springs youth's possession.

Earlier in the day Empe had been released after serving 60 days for a driving violation.

He had returned supposedly with food for a prisoner. Deputy West said he had been tipped on a possible jail break.

Henry Stimson Dies; Served In Cabinet Under 4 Presidents

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N. Y.—(P)—Henry L. Stimson, the first American to hold cabinet office under four presidents, died yesterday of a sudden heart attack. He was 83 years old.

Stimson was Secretary of War under Presidents William Howard Taft, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman, and was Herbert Hoover's only Secretary of State.

Recovers From Fall
Three months ago Stimson fell and broke his hip, but was making a good recovery and getting about with wheelchair and crutches. Yesterday afternoon he and Mrs. Stimson set out on a drive around the estate. He was stricken in the car, was taken home immediately, and died a few minutes later.

Stimson was the first leading statesman in any western country to demand a tough crackdown on the aggressors of the 1930s. His policy failed at the time, but as America's Secretary of War from Pearl Harbor to Hiroshima, he directed the Army and Air Force that helped redeem it.

While Stimson's four years as Secretary of State, 1929 to 1933, were distinguished, military men and historians have ranked him with Lincoln's Edwin M. Stanton as one of the two greatest secretaries of war in American history.

His association with the war department was unique.

He was first called to the office in 1911 by President Taft. At that time the American army had only 75,000 men and had just taken over the German general staff system that had been adopted by every big army in the world.

He left the post in 1913 and did not take it up again until 1940—27 years later—when Franklin D. Roosevelt called him back to duty on the eve of World War II at the age of 73.

A life-long Republican, Stimson was asked to serve in a move to

More Medical Men Get Calls

Draft Hasn't Filled
Army Needs Yet

WASHINGTON—(P)—The army plans further calls on the selective service system for physicians, dentists and veterinarians.

It said today that the request already made to selective service for 922 physicians, 500 dentists and 100 veterinarians by January 15 represents only part of the army's total needs.

"Additional requests will be made later as necessary to meet our requirements," a spokesman said. "Current uncertainties preclude firm estimates being made more than a few months in advance."

Selective service is to meet the pending request from among 21,101 medical men who registered last Monday.

As soon as the medical draft law has produced enough doctors to meet current requirements, an army spokesman said reserve medical captains and lieutenants who have been called to active duty involuntarily and who have had previous military duty will be relieved progressively if they request it. Slightly more than 100 doctors now on active duty will be eligible for such relief.

Last Monday's registration included medical men trained at government expense, or deferred from military service during training, who thereafter served more than 90 days but less than 21 months in the armed services or public health service.

Army Taking Steps To Buy Up Raw Wool

WASHINGTON—(P)—The army has asked the agriculture department's commodity credit corporation to act as its agent in buying 30,000,000 pounds of raw wool.

In announcing this action yesterday, the army said it was the first step toward purchasing a total of 100,000,000 pounds of wool and woolen goods to help meet reserve needs of the armed services.

Pacific Airlift Continues After Shooting Is Over

By ROY ESSOYAN
HONOLULU—(P)—The huge airlift ferrying troops and materiel over the Pacific ocean at the rate of a plane every 75 minutes, "will continue indefinitely after the end of the shooting war in Korea."

Maj. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, Military Air Transport Service commander, made that clear yesterday on a stopover here en route home from a global tour of mats bases.

"At the end of the shooting in Korea, there will be extensive and further deployment of troops and materiel," he said.

Alaska Mentioned
The general did not elaborate on this deployment in a talk with reporters in which he dealt entirely with operations in the Pacific.

In Washington, a defense department source mentioned Japan and Alaska among possible Pacific areas for deployment.

The source said he was convinced Kuter was not talking about moving U. S. forces to Indochina, where Communist activities have forced French withdrawals from a region bordering on Red China.

General Kuter said, "it is impossible to forecast when the (Pacific) airlift will end."

It began shortly after the North Korean Reds invaded South Korea June 25. It has been built up to a plane-mile volume exceeding that for Berlin's famed "operation Vittles."

Berlin Haul Beaten
The September average of 252,000 plane-miles a day for the Pacific airlift in September exceeded by 10,000 the Berlin airlift's average daily haul.

Mats and chartered commercial planes carried about 8,000 tons of cargo and 34,000 passengers to Japan and Korea during the first three months of the Korean war.

General Kuter said Mats planes would replace chartered commercial planes in the air lift as fast as air force reservists can be assigned to the operation.

Hunters' Car Skids Into Train; 2 Dead

MONROE, Mich.—(P)—Two Detroit brothers on a hunting trip were killed early today and a third man critically injured when their car skidded into the side of an Ann Arbor railroad freight train at Ida, seven miles west of here.

The victims were Anthony De Vita, 47, and Robert A. De Vita, 28.

Walter Douse, Jr., of Detroit was taken to Monroe general hospital.

State police of the Erie post said fog apparently obscured their view. They said they were unable to determine who was driving.

Eligible Voters In Michigan Now Total 2,900,000

(By The Associated Press)
An estimated 2,900,000 Michigan citizens are eligible to vote in the Nov. 7 elections—but whether that's a record nobody knows.

Registration figures gathered by the Associated Press in a statewide survey show that in many critical areas registration of voters is the highest ever.

Based On Guesses
In most of the big industrial counties old records were left shattered. These include Wayne, Oakland, Saginaw, Bay and many others.

The biggest city of all, Detroit, fell slightly short of a record. But new marks have been set in Flint, Battle Creek, Pontiac, Saginaw Bay City, Owosso and scores of other cities.

The state has never kept an official record of registration figures. Some cities and counties have not. Thus talks of records—and of total registration figures—are often guesses.

But the 2,900,000 for total registration in Michigan is a calculated guess. It is based on known figures from 13 of the state's most populous areas, representing a total population of 3,835,311.

Half Of Enemy Fighting Force Caught In Trap

Main Roads Blocked
By American Forces

(By The Associated Press)
SEOUL, Korea—(P)—Allied troops rammed roadblocks tonight on all the main routes leading north to Manchuria from the fallen Red Korean capital of Pyongyang.

The war was in the mop-up phase.

South Korean Sixth Division troops and U. S. First Division Cavalrymen linked up with American paratroopers who jumped Friday in the Suncheon-Sukchon area 30 miles north of Pyongyang.

Head For Manchuria
Suchon fell Friday night. There was fighting in the Sukchon area. The situation in the city was not clear.

But General MacArthur's headquarters said the daring parachute troops of the 11th Airborne Division had sealed off 28,000 Reds. This was nearly half of the estimated 63,000 enemy troops still at large in the Redlands.

With the fall of Pyongyang, the signal was given to South Koreans

Gains Predicted In GOP Voting

Democrat Landslide
Forecast Disputed

(By The Associated Press)
William M. Boyle, Jr., returns to his job today as chairman of the Democratic National committee, releasing Senator Anderson (D-NM) for a seven-state campaigning tour.

Anderson has been heading the committee while Boyle recovered from an appendicitis operation. He is scheduled to leave Sunday for speaking dates in Indiana, Kansas, Colorado, Idaho, Washington and South Dakota.

Boyle's absence from his party post since September 26 came at a time when political tempers in both parties were growing shorter as the November 7 election date drew nearer.

In the meantime, his opposite number in the rival camp, Chairman Guy Gabrielson of the Republican National committee, has made a three-week campaign tour of eight western states.

Gabrielson came back yesterday and promptly tied a "definitely wrong" tag to President Truman's forecast of a Democratic landslide.

"I think it will be just the reverse," he said. "If we keep working as we are now, there very definitely will be Republican victories in all parts of the country. We could very easily win control of both Houses of Congress."

Finland Lives In Red Shadow

Yet People Hopeful, Says Mustonen

The four million people of Finland, burdened by the payment of war reparations and the loss of territory to invading Russia, live within the shadow of Russian communism yet are hopeful they will not be drawn behind the iron curtain.

Arvid Mustonen of Rock, vice president of the Delta County Historical Society, last night addressed the Society at its October meeting in Carnegie Public Library and described his trip, accompanied by Mrs. Mustonen, to Finland last summer.

Today the Republic of Finland's geographical position, including an 800-mile boundary with Russia, places it in a precarious position in relationship to Russia's plans for expanding empire. Long desirous of an outlet to the Atlantic, Russia must move across Finland to attain such an objective.

Resigned Yet Hopeful
Perhaps because Finland has long been a battleground for aggressors and times are better than they have been in several years, the people are resigned yet hopeful that they will not be driven behind the iron curtain of communism Russia, Mustonen reported.

He described the country of his birth, which he had not seen since he came to the United States in 1910, and told of the business and cultural life of Finland and its people. The people are in the majority engaged in farming, the country has few resources except its forests, 45 per cent of the business is conducted by cooperatives and there is a lively interest in books and sports.

Cities are modern but there is a housing shortage and prices are high, Mustonen said. There are about 60,000 automobiles in Finland for its four million population, compared to about 70,000 autos in the Upper Peninsula with a population of 300,000.

Plan for Olympics
Travel is largely on government-owned railroads or on privately-owned buses; but school children do not ride in buses and travel to and from school on foot or on skis, as they did when Mustonen was a boy. A free public school system is maintained, literacy is high, there are many libraries and book stores, and the arts are well established and popular.

Athletics attract many Finnish participants and the country is now making preparations for the 1952 Olympic games to be held in Helsinki, where a large new stadium is being built. The American sport of baseball is growing in popularity.

Mustonen was introduced by Charles L. Follo, historical society director, and Frank Bender, Jr., president of the Historical Society, outlined plans being made for the annual meeting of the organization to be held in January. It is hoped to have Frank B. Woodford of Detroit, author of "Lewis Cass," as speaker.

Lunch was served following the meeting.

Dime Glass Of Beer Goes Out In Chicago

CHICAGO — (P) — The dime glass of beer appears to be on the way out in Chicago.

A group of West Side tavern owners decided to boost the price to 15 cents after Nov. 1. Joseph O'Brien, president of the Chicago Tavern Association, predicted the action would be followed by tavernkeepers throughout the city.

Terror Used On Murder Suspect, Defense Claims

MENOMINEE — The preliminary hearing of John Geros, Labranche farmer, on a charge of murdering his neighbor, Emil Matfyecs, was adjourned until 10 a. m. Monday after an hour's session Friday afternoon by Justice Joseph Bottkol. The adjournment was taken to give Defense Attorney John J. O'Hara an opportunity to study a 35-page statement taken by Prosecuting Attorney Victor A. Lundgren, Jr., in his questioning of Geros about the murder.

Enlivened by a charge by Defense Attorney John J. O'Hara that sheriff's officers used pressure methods to force a confession and by testimony that the accused man threatened to "chop up" the dead man, the preliminary hearing got underway.

O'Hara is defending John Geros, 59-year-old bachelor farmer, who is facing a first degree murder charge in Matfyecs' death. The men owned adjoining farms in Spalding township about a mile north of Labranche. O'Hara made his charge during cross-examination of Deputy Sheriff Andrew Vescolani, one of the officers assigned to the murder investigation.

He pressed Vescolani for an admission that Geros was taken to the dead man's cabin in the middle of the night and in the eerie atmosphere of the murder scene by candlelight, made to stay alone inside for intervals while the officers, according to O'Hara, shot off guns outside and otherwise tried to terrorize Geros to admit the killing.

The fiery courtroom cross-examination technique of O'Hara failed to shake Vescolani's testimony and he summarily denied that any threats had been made against Geros, that no one used any force or slapped him, and that no promises were made to get him to admit anything. Vescolani sat calmly in the witness chair, unruffled by the attorney's outburst.

Statements that Geros threatened Matfyecs were made in testimony of Allore Facette, who operates a store at Labranche, and by Richard Sherman, a logger, whose farm property adjoins the two farms owned by Matfyecs and Geros.

Facette said he had heard Geros tell Matfyecs during an argument about four or five months ago that he would "chop him up," while Sherman said he also heard Geros threaten to "chop him (Matfyecs) up and then kill myself." Facette said the two men had had several arguments and that while they were neighbors, they did not "pal together" or have much to do with each other. Sherman's testimony corroborated Facette's. He said he did not take the threats seriously at the time. He said both men were well-liked in the Labranche neighborhood.

After Dr. John R. Heldenreich, Daggett, testified on his examination of Matfyecs' body the day following the murder and fixing probable time of death as Friday night, July 22 or Saturday morning, July 23, Prosecuting Attorney Victor A. Lundgren, Jr., called George Kirt, who now lives in Escanaba, to trace events of Matfyecs last known day of life.

Kirt Testifies
Kirt testified he worked in a tavern and store in Labranche operated by his father-in-law, Oliver Tossignant. He said he met Matfyecs in Perronville about 5:45 p. m. on July 21 and gave him a ride to Labranche. At Labranche, Matfyecs remained at the Tossignant tavern until 9:45 p. m. Kirt said Matfyecs had been drinking steadily for about five days, but that he drank only beer and did not, to Kirt's knowledge, touch whisky. Kirt said Matfyecs did not drink any more beer after he arrived at the Labranche tavern but ate some pickled pigs' feet and a can of sardines and drank tomato juice.

Kirt said about 9:45 p. m. Matfyecs was the only customer left in the tavern and he prepared to go home. Kirt said he offered him a ride because he was planning to close the tavern, but that Matfyecs declined, saying it was a nice night and he would walk home.

Seen In Blood
Kirt testified that was the last 3rd AD—TERROR USED

he saw of Matfyecs. He said on Saturday night, July 22, he went by Matfyecs' property while delivering a bag of groceries to Geros. He said he saw no light in the cabin from the road.

Henry LaPoint, Iron Mountain, testified he discovered Matfyecs' body on Sunday morning, July 23, when he went to borrow one of Matfyecs' horses. He said he did not go into the cabin but stood in the door, saw Matfyecs lying in a pool of blood and went to Labranche where he asked Kirt to notify the sheriff's office.

Objection to the testimony of John Reindl, another deputy sheriff assigned to the investigation, was filed by O'Hara on grounds that the statements credited to Geros were obtained without his being formally advised of his constitutional rights and warned that anything he said might be used against him. Upshot of the argument between O'Hara and Prosecutor Lundgren was a ruling by Bottkol that the record would stand, but with a notation of O'Hara's objection.

Fingers Missing
Reindl's testimony was leading up to the questioning of Geros after he was arrested on Sept. 10, in which he told officers about a dream he had by which he knew either he or Matfyecs was going to be murdered. Reindl was scheduled to review this questioning of Geros when the hearing resumed this afternoon.

Music Lecture Is Postponed

The final lecture of the music appreciation series being sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Service has been postponed because of the illness of Prof. Glenn McGeoch, who was scheduled to speak Tuesday, Oct. 24 at 8 p. m.

Prof. McGeoch is a medical patient at University hospital, Ann Arbor.

The date of his lecture, "Style in Music," will be announced.

Tourist Council To Meet Monday Night

The Delta County Tourist Council will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Legion hall at Rapid River.

Howard Eldred, Michigan conservation department game area manager, will speak to the organization on pheasant and deer prospects in the county.

It was announced that Eldred has a special message for Rapid River business men in connection with the approaching deer hunting season. The Tourist Council invites all interested persons, whether Tourist Council members or not to attend the meeting.

Funds Needed For Girl Scouts

Drive Begins Here Monday, Oct. 23

The Delta County Girl Scout fund drive will begin Monday, Oct. 23 and extend through Saturday, Nov. 4. Adult members of the county organization will conduct the drive for funds, so that the Girl Scout program can be continued in 1951.

For the past five years the Girl Scouts have been participating in the Community Chest program, as one of seven organizations receiving an annual fund on which to operate. Because the Community Chest has been discontinued this year it is necessary for the Girl Scouts to conduct a drive to raise the necessary funds to carry on the work of this youth organization. The Escanaba quota is $1,500.

The total budget for Delta County is $2,919.00, of this amount, Escanaba's share will be 30%, Gladstone, 40%, the outlying districts, 2%, on the basis of registered Girl Scouts in these areas. The total Girl Scout registration in the county is 623 Girl Scouts and Brownies. Funds are used in the following way: office and clerical expense, $500; camp operation, $1,000; public relations, $10; inter-troop program expense, which will include an invitation to U. P. Senior Girl Scout conference, $450; leader training, $380; county troop expansion, $114.70; a total of $2,519.70. This budget must be reached if the Girl Scout program is to be made available to all registered Scouts. Unless the total amount of this budget is reached, the Girl Scout program cannot function in its full capacity. Money raised by individual troops does not apply on this budget. Cookie sales, calendar sales, peanut sales, etc., are conducted as needed for troop projects.

The discontinuation of the Community Chest in Delta County means that there will be 14 separate fund drives this year. The Girl Scout fund raising campaign has been planned to avoid if possible any door to door solicitation. Letters have been sent to Girl Scout parents, business and industry, and a Girl Scout Tag Day will be conducted Friday, Oct. 27. If the quota is not reached through this solicitation it will be necessary to make a concentrated personal contact for funds.

Jos. Frechette Taken By Death

Lumberman Victim Of Heart Illness

Joseph Frechette, 72, of Iron River, active in Michigan lumbering work for 58 years, died at five o'clock this morning at the Iron River hospital. He suffered a heart attack at the Phoenix Lumber company office in Iron River at four o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mr. Frechette served as general manager of the Phoenix Lumber and Supply company from 1918 until July, 1950 when he retired in favor of his son, Earl E. Frechette. Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Frechette and family moved from Escanaba to Iron Mountain last week.

Joseph Frechette remained in an advisory capacity at the Phoenix company following his retirement. He came from Quebec to Michigan with his parents when he was eight years old and started work at a Michigamme sawmill at the age of 14.

From Michigamme, Mr. Frechette moved to Negaunee where he became yard manager of the Consolidated Lumber company. He moved to Iron River in 1913 to become associated with the Phoenix Lumber and Supply company, of which he was appointed general manager five years later.

He was a member of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the Iron River Business Men's association.

Surviving are two sons, Ward of Iron River and Earl of Iron Mountain; four daughters, Mrs. Ed Bata, Miss Edna Frechette, Miss Fay Frechette and Miss Ethel Frechette, all of Iron River.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete but the funeral services will be held Monday morning in Iron River.

Trenary

Autumn Fling
TRENNARY—Members of the Trenary senior class sponsored a dance held in the school gym Friday evening. The dance was called the Autumn Fling.

Committees in charge were: Tickets, Pat Finlan, Laverne Viari, Gloria Latvala, Marlene Saari, Arlene Goin and Jean Baurele; program, Pat Finlan, Laverne Viari and Marlene Saari; refreshments, Marvin Aho, Arnold Aho, Reino Neimi and Jean Baurele; posters, Reino Neimi and Marvin Aho.

Accident
A car driven by James Hawley struck an automobile owned by Fred VanHala on main street here today. The VanHala car was parked at the curb when struck by the Hawley car, making a U turn in the street. State police were called. Both cars were damaged.

Fire Department Called
The Trenary fire department was called to Limestone Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a fire at the Tyner farm. An old barn filled with hay burned.

4-H Club Meeting
A group of 4-H club girls met at the William Hytinen home this week to elect officers. The following were elected: President, Pat Mikulich; vice-president, Joan Whitmarsh; secretary, Willow Hytinen; treasurer, Maxi Raab; health inspector, Elaine Hytinen; reporter, Shirley Ann Hytinen.

A new club name, Club 13, was chosen. During the evening games were played and refreshments were served by Mrs. Hytinen.

Personals
Attending the Rock Lions club dinner at Rock in honor of District Governor Edward Berg were: Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Oilla, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Kraus and Mr. and Mrs. William Bucholtz. Mrs. Bucholtz

HEADS EAST—Adm. Robert B. Carney, Commander of the U. S. Second Fleet, will take over command of the U. S. naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean Sea Nov. 1. During World War II, Admiral Carney was Admiral Halsey's chief of staff in the Pacific.

Fire Department Called Four Times Here Friday Evening

The Escanaba fire department was called four times between 4:25 and 6:55 p. m., Friday.

In one fire, in a storage building at 821 First avenue north, used by Moersch and Degnan, the building was gutted. Damage in the other three was negligible.

Firemen were called to 821 First avenue north at 4:25 p. m., and again at 5:45 p. m., when the fire started burning again in the ceiling of the building. The roof and one side of the building was damaged, as well as most of the interior. Firemen fought for one hour and 20 minutes before the blaze was under control.

Other fire calls were to 303 First ave. south where a gasoline stove exploded at the Blanche Mayou home and to St. Joseph cemetery where a grass fire was started from a chimney fire nearby.

Prison Trusties Lead Sportsman's Life

Park Project Work Planned

Several U. P. Areas To Be Improved

Construction of new facilities and some repair work has started in several of the 23 state park and recreation areas included in a $441,000 remodeling program to be completed by June, 1951, the conservation department reports.

Other much needed repair and development work in the 37 other park and recreation areas is specified in the conservation department budget recommendation for 1951-52.

Projects now underway in the Upper Peninsula and the complete current fiscal year schedule for each:

Tahquamenon—Erection of workshop and quarters for park rangers and concession center at lower falls.

Porcupine Mountains—Enlargement of ski shelter building.

The department's parks division is taking bids on installation of a sewage disposal unit at several parks. Other work consists of replacement and extension of campground electrical service and bathroom repair. Also to be built is a combination toilet, laundry and shower building and a new sewage disposal system for the campgrounds.

Locations where such work will be started are Brimley, J. W. Wells, and Straits parks.

Hilma Larson Back From Trip To Europe

Miss Hilma Larson, 215 North 16th street, returned this week from a six-month visit to Sweden and other European countries.

Miss Larson, who left April 12, made the trip both ways aboard the liner Gripsholm.

She spent three months in Visby, her birthplace, visiting with relatives and friends; and another three months in Stockholm and Sundsvall, Sweden, and Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, France, Spain, Switzerland and Germany.

Seeing The Swiss Alps and the mid-night sun were the highlights of her six-month tour, Miss Larson reports.

While in Sweden, Miss Larson met Mrs. P. N. Peterson of Escanaba and Paul Carlson of Gary, Ind., who also toured Sweden.

This was the second trip back to Sweden for Miss Larson, who left that country when 10 years of age. The previous trip was made in 1933.

Objectors To Proposed Change In Zoning Proved Their Point

IN view of the weight of opposition of property owners to the proposed rezoning of Ludington street west of 23rd street to Class A residential area, it seems unlikely that the zoning change will materialize.

The planning commission has agreed to restudy the problem. The commission could, of course, stick to its previous recommendation and again petition the council to rezone the area in dispute but it would be a mistake to do so. The council would not approve anything in the face of the protests from the property owners. Moreover, such action would tend to jeopardize the broader benefits of city planning.

Williams Says He Has Quit The A. D. A.

IN a campaign speech here last week and in other political speeches elsewhere in the peninsula, Former Governor Kelly charged that Governor Williams helped the A.D.A., Americans for Democratic Action, take over control of the Democratic party in Michigan. Kelly further charged that the A.D.A. is a socialistic group employing Communistic tactics.

This week Gov. Williams finally decided he had better meet the issue raised by his opponent. He said that he was once "briefly associated" with the A.D.A. but that he had quit the organization.

Williams did not say that he quit the ADA because he learned of its socialistic tendencies, however. The governor says that he quit the ADA when he saw it endorsing Republicans for office, and he could not go along with that.

The governor's reference in Detroit to proclamations issued years ago by Kelly urging Michigan to take part in observances inspired by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship was a particularly malicious remark. At that time, Russia was our ally and it was the general belief in this country that if friendship could prevail between Russia and this country, there would be less cause to worry about world peace.

The idea of developing American-Soviet friendship was a good one at that time and, for that matter, it is still a good idea if some real basis for that friendship could be found.

United Nations Day Will Be Observed

THE western world—and much of the Far East—should salute the UN on United Nations Day, Oct. 24. And it might be worthwhile for all of us to take time out for some few moments of reflection about the world organization that is celebrating its fifth anniversary.

A good part of the comment in this country about the UN has been derogatory and with little basis of fact. The very people who say the most against the UN know the least about it.

Admittedly the organization could be a lot better; it could be made to work much more smoothly. But the main thing to remember is the fact that it does work, it has proved its value.

The immediate response to the Korean crisis, which enabled the U. S. to rush quick aid to the hard-pressed South Koreans, demonstrated what the freedom-loving peoples of the world can do when they band together.

The next time you hear someone depreciate the work of the UN, or you yourself begin to doubt its usefulness, just ask this question: "What better plan have we to secure world peace than the United Nations?"

When you come up with an answer, then you can begin to slam the UN.

Tree Trimmer

When McGinley's wife declared there was a tree in need of trim, and the roof was being damaged by an overhanging limb, she propose an expert be employed to do the trimming chore, but McGinley said he'd often done such simple jobs before. So he mounted on his ladder with his hatchet in his hand, but it wasn't long until he wished he'd stayed on solid land.

First he found the twigs could scratch his face and poke him in the eyes, and he then began to wonder if his bragging had been wise. And atop his weaving ladder, he was scared to make a move, but his doubting wife was watching and his skill he had to prove. Soon his arms were chafed and blistered, and his knees were rough and raw and it dawned on him that what he really needed was a saw.

But he hacked away and one last blow he struck with all his might, and his ladder slithered sideways and he grabbed a limb in fright. When the firemen came to get him down, his face was pale and drawn, and he never knew how good it felt to stand upon the lawn. So no more does old McGinley trim the trees around his house, and when expert help is needed, he's as quiet as a mouse.

MARTIN

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON—Under the current army pay system, the real heroes in the Korean war are drawing the least pay. They don't even get a fair share of the glory when the publicity and medals are doled out.

These unsung heroes are the infantrymen, who form the army's battering ram, but who are not paid as much as the technical men and pencil pushers behind the lines.

It used to be that infantrymen could collect $10 extra each month for combat work. If they wore the combat infantryman's badge, it was good for a $10 monthly bonus. However, even this has been taken away from them in Korea, despite the fact that combat airmen and submarine men still draw $20 to $75 per month extra for "hazardous duty."

Meanwhile, it's the infantrymen who feel the bite of enemy bullets, who slog through mud, sleep in foxholes and live on cold K rations, who have little chance to take a bath, see a movie, attend church, write letters, or sleep with their shoes off.

Nevertheless, in Korea, the average monthly pay of a man in an infantry rifle company is $135, compared with $226 for an air force combat crew man and $172 for a submarine crew.

Highest-paid troops in the army are ordnance men, followed by signal corps, armored force, quartermaster, anti-aircraft, field artillery, engineers, medical and, last on the list, the infantry.

It's the same story with other awards. During World War II, infantrymen suffered 70 per cent of the casualties but got only 11.6 per cent of the medals. The air force was decorated with 76.2 per cent of the medals, while other branches got the remaining 12.2 per cent.

Now that the Korean war is nearly won, the army should give fair pay and recognition to the foot soldiers who did the slugging and the slogging.

NO AIRPLANES FOR MRS. VEEP

Vice President Alben Barkley and his charming bride see eye to eye on about everything except riding in airplanes.

Barkley takes to the air like a duck to water, can snooze peacefully even during a choppy flight. However, Mrs. Barkley is addicted to airsickness and flatly refuses to fly.

The Veep wanted his lady to accompany him when he took off on his current Democratic barnstorming tour. But it was "no go" when he reported that he was flying. Instead, Mrs. B. entrusted for the family health in Padukah, Ky.

"I have no desire to become an angel—not yet, anyway," she told a friend.

FARMERS' LOSS OF MINERAL RIGHTS

Many farmers still don't know it, but the government has sold the mineral rights out from under some of their farmlands without so much as notifying the owners. The Federal Farm Mortgage corporation has given outside speculators the rights to drill for oil or dig for uranium on hundreds of farms.

This has already started a one-man investigation by Delaware's GOP Senator John Williams, causing the government to reverse its policy and now give the farmer first crack at mineral rights on his own property.

However, many farmers, whose rights have already been sold, do not realize that they have only 50 per cent claim to the oil and uranium that may be lying under their fields. What's more, they probably won't find out until the speculators show up on the farms to drill.

These farms were the ones that went bankrupt during the depression. In most cases, the government took over the mortgages and later resold the farms. However, it was usually written into the small print that the government retained 50 per cent of the mineral rights.

Later, when traces of oil were discovered near these farms, the government began selling the mineral rights behind the farmers' backs.

For example, Elmer P. Johnson bought a 160-acre depression farm from the government in Oceana county, Michigan, in 1938. The government reserved half the mineral rights, then sold half of its rights 10 years later to Augie Busk of Grand Rapids, Mich., for $800. Exactly seven days after the sale, the Roosevelt Oil company struck oil on Johnson's farm. Over night, the value of Busk's new mineral rights shot up from $800 to $8,000.

Take My Word For It ... Frank Colby

STANDARD AMERICAN SPEECH

A Virginia daily (which does not publish this column) has taken me sternly to account in an editorial headed "Save Us From This."

"Frank Colby, who holds forth on the editorial page of our afternoon contemporary, and very interestingly, frequently speaks of something that he calls Standard (capital his) American speech.

"We have never quite understood what Standard (capital his) American speech is, except that he made it. What we hope is that never, no, never, will there be in this country any such thing as Standard (capital his) American speech. Good speech or bad, it would be awful if any pronunciation, accent, diction, or what not became standard to America."

The editorial writer takes a provincial attitude toward American speech. He thinks of standardized speech as something evil, whereas Standard American (capital mine) is the prevailing speech of about one hundred million Americans and most English-speaking Canadians.

Speech authorities recognize three types of cultured American speech: (1) Eastern, (2) Southern, and (3) General or Standard American (some call it Midwestern, but the term is erroneous).

It is estimated that America pays $80,000,000,000 for orchestra music yearly. Well, those who dance, etc

If Someone Would Only Stop Dragging Their Feet!

Ingenious New Test Reveal Why Bones Break And Luggage Cracks

By MARY JANE MOORE

Why do bones break in some accidents and not in others?

What about the remarkable new testing devices which give your hand luggage even rougher treatment than a freight handler and is leading the way to handbags that can take the toughest kind of punishment?

How are radioactive isotope tracers bringing to light vital new facts about how plants grow?

The answers to these and a lot more questions of direct interest to practically everybody are being sought, and in many cases discovered, in laboratories of the Federal Government today.

Use Testing Machines

For example, at the famed National Bureau of Standards research is going on with respect to the mechanical properties of human bones.

You've often noted that sometimes a minor mishap, auto, airplane or just around the home, will cause a serious break; sometimes, on the other hand, a heavy crash may find the person or persons involved miraculously unharmed.

To discover just what stresses and strains the human frame can withstand, the bureau's experts have rigged up a series of testing machines, and so far they've checked 17 bone specimens. Fourteen of these were made in compression with the direction of the load parallel to the fibers of the bone. One was made in compression with the direction of the load perpendicular to the bone fibers, one in bending, and another under torsion load. Test specimens consisted of sections removed from the bones and of portions machined into plates and hollow cylinders.

The tubular compression specimens failed with a sudden snap and a length-wise cracking. So did the bending and torsion specimens. The restraint of the special testing jig prevented complete failure of leaf specimens.

Now, the results of the tests showed the average ultimate strength of the compression specimens to be about 23,000 pounds per inch. The fifteenth specimen in which the load was applied at right angles to the bone fibers, had about the same ultimate strength, indicating, it is pointed out, that the effect of the direction of loading on the bone is small.

According to the results so far, the investigators find that bone is an elastic, brittle material having about one-fourth the compressive strength of cast iron and more than twice that of hickory wood. The average elasticity of bone is about one-tenth that of steel, or about equal to that of wood.

Tests are continuing now to determine strength of the average human knee joint in the standing position, with loads to be applied and checked. Also underway is a study of the connection between the X-ray absorption qualities of bone and its strength or stiffness.

Far Reaching Studies

All of these facts then will be used in devising practical means of reducing bone breakage in accidents, especially those involving all means of transportation, but notably automobiles and air planes. In other words, when the researchers find out all of the precise mechanical qualities of the human frame, and how it reacts under certain kinds of impacts, they'll be able to supply industry with accurate data which it can use to produce safer vehicles.

Although the current studies are by far the most far-reaching and carefully controlled ever made, the idea of regarding the human body as a mechanical structure isn't new. The earliest investigations of this kind are believed to have been made by Galileo around 1633 in connection with his work on beam mechanics. Since then it has been the subject of sporadic probes here and abroad.

"Another attack on the problem is justified at this time," the bureau says, "in view of the spectacular advances made recently in the technique of measuring strain and other mechanical quantities that have come about largely through research on the behavior of aircraft both in flight and in the laboratory."

And, when it's finished, you'll be able to tell, also, why Uncle Ned sprained his ankle when he stepped off a curb, and Aunt Minnie didn't hurt herself one little bit when she fell down the cellar stairs.

Also at the Bureau of Standards another group of researchers has rigged up ingenious devices which literally beat the life out of hand luggage. Purpose is to find why it breaks down—with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of losses annually—in use.

It was found that 64 percent of all checked luggage in U. S. baggage rooms consisted of week-end and overnight cases, wardrobe trunks, and suitcases. The most popular covering materials, according to the bureau, varied with locality but in general with fabric covered cases the so-called "airplane" type luggage amounted to 40 percent of the total with leather and fibreboard next.

The loading, for test purposes, varied from 22 to 77 pounds. Types of damage studied were broken hardware and handles, separation of frames or covering, punctured surface, scuffing, tearing and soiling. Since the first four troubles tend to destroy the usefulness of the bag, the laboratory experts figured out special tests to duplicate that kind of damage.

So, they devised machines which dropped the luggage repeatedly under varying pressures. Handles and fasteners were tested. The apparatus was equipped with a counter and a device for stopping its operation when failure occurred.

Ability of a suitcase to withstand static loads was tested by placing 150 pound weights for five minutes on each side. A dialabically clever instrument poked around for puncture-resistance data.

Surprising Results

In addition to doing all this laboratory testing, the bureau also sent a batch of bags through the regular transportation mill: 12,000 miles by rail on 22 roundtrips from Washington to predetermined points, receiving 24 handlings per round trip.

The results of the laboratory and actual service tests ran surprisingly close.

As a result of the tests, the bureau tentatively is recommending minimum performance requirements as follows: That the piece of luggage shall withstand 150 pounds placed on top, side and end for 5 minutes in each position; shall withstand 25,000 pick-up motions of the handle-fatigue

So They Say

We believe we know who every Communist is in the United States of America. We know of no Communist in the employ of the federal government today. And if one is found he will be swiftly dealt with.—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.

A new war means catastrophe to all human beings all around the world. From that point I have started my work.—Trygve Lie, UN general secretary, after visiting Marshal Stalin.

There is no choice in the world today for a people who seek freedom. All must be united against oppression.—U. S. High Commissioner in Germany John Jay McCloy.

The hallmark of a dynamic economy is a labor shortage and not a labor surplus. In an expanding economy, there should be more jobs than people to fill them.—Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D) of New York.

Manufacture of the H-bomb by Russia would necessitate such a tremendous effort in all fields that it would interfere too seriously with Russia's economic life.—Francis Perrin, co-chief of France's atomic projects.

Good Evening ...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

ONE SOLUTION—There are opponents of the Straits of Mackinac bridge project who may point to recent traffic statistics at the Straits and say, "I told you so!"

For the state highway department reports that the first nine months of 1950 traffic at the Straits shows a decrease of 2.1 per cent below the same period last year. A total of 480,412 vehicles were transported in the first nine months of this year, 10,281 less than a year ago.

Any reduction in traffic at the Straits, however slight, provides opportunity to cast doubt on the need of a Straits bridge. It would be more important to the economic future of the Upper Peninsula to determine what effect the Straits traffic "bottleneck" has in discouraging travel.

One solution to the problem is to discourage inter-peninsula travel to the point where inadequate facilities will handle the reduced traffic load.

DIFFERENT GRADES—Under the heading of fuller explanation is a report from George M. Nolden, president of the Delta Coal & Dock company, Gladstone, in connection with coal prices quoted the county of Delta and the Escanaba school district by coal dealers.

With some heat, as you might expect in a discussion on coal, Nolden pointed out that the figures presented in this column did not tell the whole story. The county, the figures revealed, is buying stoker coal at a price approximately $4 per ton higher than the price paid by the city school district.

The difference, explained Nolden, is in the higher grade of coal needed for use in county stokers. The city schools, with stokers of the industrial type in their heating plants, can use the lower-priced industrial grade of coal.

THE WHITE BUCK—While driving past Nanna Junction one recent evening we saw a flash of white among the pines a short distance off the highway. We turned and drove back—to get another view of the albino or white deer.

Folks at Nanna Junction said they have seen the deer several times before and described it as a doe. Sometimes it comes quite near the houses, they reported.

But is it a doe or a buck? We discussed the deer with John Chrisk, district conservation supervisor, and he said Conservation Officers Earl Kaiser of Ensign and Hugh Fisher of Garden have been close to the white deer. It has antlers and it is a buck, they said.

Perhaps it would be as well if it were a doe. Then it might escape hunters' bullets during the November deer season. And there is the possibility that not one but two white deer are in the area, one a buck, the other a doe.

TOWN AND COUNTRY—Under the heading of "agricultural information" Michigan State college recently issued a news release advising hunters how to avoid hunting accidents.

This departure from the sow and calf type of literature swung the MSC publicity staff off center, and it reported that hunters should never point the "muzzle" of a gun at a human being. They were probably thinking of the muzzle of the Colt that nuzzles the mare.

JAUNTING JERNSTROMS—Dr. Roy E. Jernstrom, a native of Escanaba and a brother of Ed A. Jernstrom of 809 South 11th street, has recently returned to his home in Rapid City, S. D., after an 18,000 mile plane trip through South America.

One of the most interesting experiences of Dr. and Mrs. Jernstrom was a side trip to the San Blas islands 120 miles out in the Atlantic from Panama City.

There they visited among the primitive Indians and Dr. Jernstrom, who has delivered hundreds of babies, observed a peculiar custom in connection with child birth. The mother reclines in a hammock and when the child is about to be born a slit is cut in the hammock and the baby drops through into a tub of water which the tribal medicine men have specially prepared.

The doctor snapped more than 400 pictures on the trip only to discover that all were blurred—the camera lens was loose.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Les Berrieres, Switzerland—Pierre Laval, right-hand man of old Marshal Philippe Pétain in the Vichy government of unoccupied France, is negotiating with Germany for a possible French declaration of war on Britain in return for a definite and easy peace between France and the axis, informed travelers reaching here declared today.

Escanaba—Miss Ivy Anderson, daughter of Major and Mrs. J. Anderson, Salvation Army officers of Escanaba, and Waldemar J. Winther, son of Mrs. A. Winther and of the late Rev. H. A. Winther, were married Oct. 20 at 12 o'clock noon at the home of the bride's parents.

20 YEARS AGO

Madrid—Valeriano Weyler, ranking captain general of the Spanish army and chiefly remembered for his stern policies in Cuba just before the Spanish-American war died yesterday. He was 92 years old.

Escanaba—Of wide interest to people in Escanaba is the opening Sunday in Detroit at the Lafayette of "Dracula," the vampire mystery play from Bram Stoker's novel, in which Arthur Courtney White, former Escanaba, plays the title role.

Escanaba—Frederick Fung, formerly of Escanaba, is visiting at the home of his uncle, Charlie Fung, local laundryman, for several days before leaving for Canton, China, where he will be employed as assistant chemical engineer at a large paper mill. Fung was graduated from Escanaba high school in 1925, and later attended Lawrence college and the University of Michigan, where he took courses in chemical engineering. He came to America when a youth to attend public schools here.

Truman's Trip To Visit Mac Appears Political

By ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK—I have spent the last week trying to figure out what Harry Truman was shooting for when he flew out to Wake Island to hold court with Gen. MacArthur—if that comes out of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's mouth I aim to shoot a copy-reader—and all I can make out is that this was a piece of smart politicking at government expense.

RUARK

There is nothing about war that Truman can tell MacArthur, and very little about statesmanship, if the last run-ins with Mac and the employment of Dean Acheson is any example of Truman statesmanship, the Korean war, as such, is physically nearly finished, and I guess Gen. MacArthur can wrap it up without much help from Harry.

The president of the United States is the commander-in-chief of the military forces, which means Harry is MacArthur's boss. If I am a boss and I wish to talk to the help I will have the help come see me. Planes fly both ways and MacArthur is not too important to fly to Washington to see his boss, if the boss wants to palaver.

But the flying of MacArthur to the United States, since Mac has been away since before Pearl Harbor, would raise such a ruckus that it would knock a lot of focus off the coming elections, a fact of which I am sure Harry, the eminently practical politico, was keenly aware. Too, the temper of the people would not particularly be adapted to a command perform-

Salvation Army Reaches Many Without Church

Many thousands of men and women never go to church, and are never reached by organized religion. Many people, through misfortune, poverty or disgrace, feel out of step with the other people in their community, and outside all ordinary concern for their welfare.

To these, and to scores of others without a church, The Salvation Army goes, bringing the only religious teaching that they know. With this spiritual help goes material aid, and a very real concern for their well-being.

The Salvation Army ranks high in the hearts of people today just because of this concern for their spiritual and physical welfare.

Today, The Salvation Army in our community is making an appeal for financial help, in order to carry on its useful work for all mankind. Give generously, to show your appreciation of its many services to humanity.

Democracy Meaningless To Many Asian People

By MARQUIS CHILDS

NEW DELHI, India—What finally will happen in this vast sub-continent with its crowded masses of humanity can only be guessed in this moment of transition. One system has gone and another is seeking to establish itself.

The changeover from British imperialism to western style democracy is by no means completed. There are pessimists, both among Indian and foreign observers, who believe it will take many years if indeed it can be achieved at all.

One thing that the years since the Russian revolution should have taught us is that a vacuum in political power is as abhorrent as a vacuum in nature. The British ruled with severe and often oppressive authority for more than a century. That authority is gone and a new government is trying to assert itself.

Colonial Power Gone

Colonial power as exercised by Europe in Asia was essentially simple in nature. It consisted of superior weapons—two gunboats and a brigade of marines—and the will to use those weapons ruthlessly when necessary to put down any signs of revolt.

Many factors have been at work which make the exercise of that kind of power impossible today. One is the spread of humanitarian beliefs. No longer is it possible to shoot down a thousand natives or crowd them into a black hole in Calcutta to suffocate, the matter to be considered merely an incidental result of colonial rule.

Another factor is the dynamic of the Communist revolution and it does still have a powerful dynamic in this part of the world where there is such infinite misery and poverty. Passing through Europe, I discussed these things with one of the most brilliant and knowledgeable of Europeans. He is an economist, political philosopher and high official of the United Nations. What he said was so stimulating and provocative that I want to try to reproduce part of it here:

"The thing I fear most is that Russia may have a substitute for colonial power. That is to say a substitute for taking power and for holding power with an authority just as absolute as that exercised in the past.

"First, there is the magic of promises. These promises are like strong drink or like food to the starving. They promise to transform the life of the wretched peasant on the land and the equally wretched dwelling in the city who sleeps in the street or in a crowded hovel.

"We in the west know that these promises are almost wholly false. The peasant will exchange one kind of landlordism for another and perhaps even cruder kind of landlordism. But the peasant, who lives on the edge of starvation, hungering to own his land, does not know the promises are false.

Rewards for Faithful

"Having made the promises, the Communists, as in China, seize the holdings of the top one or two percent. This is enough to provide rewards for the little band of faithful Communists who will exercise the authority. Along with the rewards go the familiar threats and penalties, including liquidation whether individual or on a mass scale.

"Once entrenched and with the control of a thoroughly rehabilitated and modernized police and military force it is hard to see how this authority can ever be overthrown. And one other thing should be noted. The Communists put an end to graft and corruption with ruthless efficiency.

"We in the west know, of course, that there is a far more sinister kind of corruption than the taking of bribes and graft. But, again, the Asiatic does not know this. He has fought to keep alive and he has seen the petty graft of his landlord or, more often, his landlord's agent. In the city he has seen his foreman cheat him of overtime pay."

We argued about these things. I pointed out to my friend how the United States and Great Britain were working out a new partnership with at least some of the countries of Asia; a partnership that does not depend on the exercise of authoritarian power. But, as with many Europeans today, he persisted in his pessimism.

Certainly, for most Asians talk of democracy is pretty meaningless. To those who live constantly close to the abyss of total poverty it appears as an unattainable luxury displayed in a remote shop window called America. In contrast, the raw wine of Communist promise holds out the hope of a better life not in some distant future but day after tomorrow. By the time this promise will have been discovered false, it will long since have been too late to do anything about it.

Quonset Huts Make Cow Cafeterias

NEW YORK—(AP)—Quonset huts of proper size can be made into good cow cafeterias. "Steelways" magazine says the cafeterias can cut man hours in feeding cows to as little as four hours a winter.

One hut is set up inside another with a 10-foot space between them. Chopped hay is dropped into the space. The hay is held in place by hinged wooden slats with enough space between them for a cow's nose. Movement of the slats when the cows feed dislodges hay from the space above.

The Darlington

A Modern Home
Of Modified Cape
Cod Style

Rooms Six
Bedrooms Two
Closets Five
Cubage 18,000
Dimensions 36' x 30'

The long, one-story building gives the house its modern appearance, and the 36-foot length is minimized by the gable at the right. The house is 30 feet deep and has a cubic footage of 18,000 feet.

At the right is the rounded picture window which further enhances the appearance of the entire house. The small porch, under the gable, adds a distinctive touch to the house and at the same time provides shelter for visitors. Window shutters and the Colonial paneled front door are in harmony with the modified Cape Cod style of "The Darlington." A low picket fence and shrubbery planting would help to emphasize the charms of this home.

Louvers should be placed at either end of the house, near the peak, to provide ventilation during the summer in the full storage space. Access to this storage space is gained through a trap door or disappearing stairway in the ceiling of the hall located right in the center of the house.

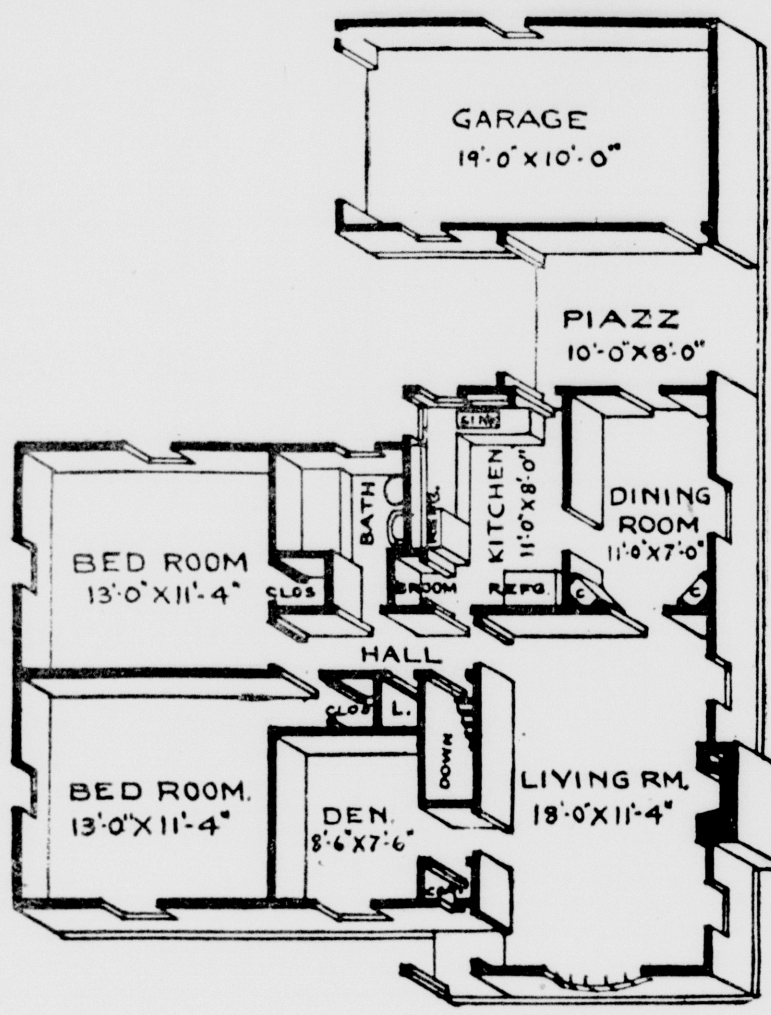

A clapboard finish is recommended for the exterior of the house.

Not only because it saves endless walking up and down stairs, but also because it is easy to repair and paint, the one-story house is becoming more and more popular with home builders.

Mr. Homeowner appreciates the fact that he won't have to balance two stories up on a ladder while putting up and taking down screens or storm windows; Mrs. Homeowner will be delighted because she won't have to wait weeks to have the job done.

Convenient Den
From the tiny covered porch the visitor goes directly into one end of the 18x11 1/4" living room. Just off the living room on the left is a convenient 8'6"x7'6" den. There is a coat closet conveniently located between the two rooms with a porthole window providing light for the closet space.

A window overlooking the front lawn provides light and ventilation for the den, which could be used as an office by the home business executive if so desired. This room also could serve as a sewing room, or study, or as a playroom or game room for the youngsters in the family.

If the home owner doesn't want to use the den area at all it would be a simple matter to block up the doorway from the living room and cut a door through into the front bedroom. Then, this area could be used by Mother as a dressing or sewing room.

In the large living room there is an outside wall fireplace that is flanked by two large windows. Joined with the picture window, these two windows provide plenty of light for the living room.

Directly opposite the arched doorway from the living room is a glazed door opening on to the 10'x8' piazza or breezeway.

The dining room window is balanced by a door located in the opposite wall and leading to the 11'x8' kitchen. Against the left wall is the ideal location for either the refrigerator or stove. On the right is the back door, which also of the L, is lighted by a window in the back wall. Overhead and underneath cupboards also follow the L-pattern.

Next to the broom closet, at the end of the counter, would likewise make a good location for the refrigerator. There is a door between this broom closet and the stove leading into the straight hall connecting with the living room, bathroom and two bedrooms.

Full Cellar
Opposite the kitchen door are the stairs to the full cellar with the heating system located underneath the living room. The laundry should be located at the back of the house, below the bathroom or kitchen; the rest of the cellar can be partitioned off to suit the owner.

A linen closet can be located in the hall adjacent to the cellar stairs.

Located right in the middle of the house, the bathroom is convenient to all the rooms. It also serves as sort of a dividing line between the recreation and living space and the sleeping rooms in the house.

Both bedrooms measure 13' x 11 1/4" and have two windows for cross ventilation and light. There's plenty of wall space in each room with lots of closet space.

A door at the back of the garage opens on the piazza, making a short cut to the kitchen. Parcels can then be placed on the counter inside the door. Two windows provide the 19'x10' garage with ample light.

Between the garage and house is a court which would make a fine location for a small flower or herb garden.

The lot itself should be at least 50 feet wide and the house should face from the southeast to the southwest. Sidewalls can be built of shingles, brick or any other type of masonry, as preferred.

Plans Available
Complete plans and specifications for "The Darlington" and other houses in this series are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Dept. 15, Daily Press and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

PERILOUS GALLANTRY
CHICAGO—(AP)—Police Lieutenant Thomas McCann saw the old lady on the platform of a south side railroad station. He perceived that she was afraid to come down to the street level because the stairs were wet. The gallant officer went up and helped the lady descend safely to the sidewalk. But on the last step he slipped, fell and sprained his back.

Paint Remover May Damage Linoleum

Sometimes it is necessary to remove the worn coatings from linoleum that has been lacquered or varnished several times. It is not advisable to use paint and varnish remover for the purpose because the composition of linoleum itself contains animal and vegetable oils which are soluble under paint removers. If such removers are used, however, use care to clean them away as soon as the old varnish has softened and before they have reached the linoleum surface itself.

A safer method is to wash the linoleum thoroughly, then when it is dry, sand it with wet or dry sandpaper. Clear lacquer is often used to give a long-wearing surface to linoleum—so is linoleum varnish and floor wax.

Question: What is the most common cause of unsatisfactory paint jobs?

Answer: Moisture. Joints around windows and doors should be thoroughly caulked. Nail holes should be primed before putty is applied.

Mary Hibbard,
Raymond Dube
Exchange Vows

Baskets of pompons and tall cathedral tapers formed the setting in the First Presbyterian church for the marriage this afternoon of Miss Mary Elizabeth Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hibbard, 518 South 10th street, and Raymond J. Dube, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Dube, 608 South 11th street. The three o'clock candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. James H. Bell.

Traditional bridal music was offered by Mrs. F. M. Fernstrom, organist. Mrs. M. H. Garrard, jr., sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. N. H. Witham, "I Love You Truly." Before the ceremony Mrs. Garrard and Mrs. Witham sang a duet "O Promise Me."

Attending Miss Hibbard as maid of honor was Miss Dolores Korkoshik. Miss Joyce Gernsman was bridesmaid.

White Velvet Gown
Robert Coplan served as best man for Mr. Dube and Robert and Russell Owens were ushers.

Miss Hibbard wore a beautiful gown of white velvet with an illusion yoke and long court train. The long sleeves of the gown tapered to a point over the wrist. The bride's illusion veil was caught to a white velvet Juliet cap. Her bouquet of orchids was tied with streamers to which were attached long sprigs. A snouss of pearls, an heirloom of the bride's grandmother, was her only jewelry.

The bride's attendants wore identical colonial-style gowns of forest green tulle. The large skirts of the gowns fashioned with high necklines ended in a deep ruffle. Both attendants wore rhinestone jewelry and carried colonial bouquets of bronze pompons and tansuam roses. Their headbands matched the bouquets. Mrs. Hibbard chose a street-length black crepe dress with satin trim and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of pink pompons.

Home in Escanaba
Mrs. Dube wore a street-length dress of black velvet. Black accessories and a yellow pompon corsage completed her ensemble. A rehearsal dinner was served Friday evening at the Dells for the bridal party. The table was centered with a groom's cake.

Two hundred guests will attend the reception at the home of the bride from 4 to 6:30 p. m., today. The bridal table is being decorated with silver candelabra with tall white tapers. A satin cloth will cover the table with a bride's cake being used as centerpiece. Mrs. Anne Hemes and Mrs. Elizabeth White are in charge of pouring. Arthur Rowe is presiding at the punch bowl.

The young people will leave on a wedding trip through Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan. The new Mrs. Dube has chosen a green and black checked suit, black velvet accessories and an orchid corsage for going-away.

Following their return, Mr. and Mrs. Dube will make their home at 405 South Eighth street, Escanaba.

The bride is a graduate of Escanaba high school and has been employed at Employers Mutual Insurance company. The groom, also an Escanaba high school graduate, is employed by the Atlas Brewing company.

Perfect soft-cooked eggs can be made by using one cup of cold or warm water for each egg, or enough to cover well. Bring the water gradually to simmering; do not boil. Simmer three to five minutes; then break immediately into an egg cup and serve. Season with salt and pepper, and a little butter or margarine if desired, at the table.

New Republican Women's Club Will Be Organized

Republican women of Escanaba, led by an energetic committee of workers are organizing a new Republican Women's club.

Letters have been mailed to 300 women in the community with the hope that they will interest as many of their friends as possible.

Purpose of the organization will be to instruct women in the many campaign issues, including socialism, communism, Korea, national defense, spending and debt, taxes, government waste, the Hoover report, labor, socialized medicine and social security.

The first official function of the new club will be a program and tea at the Delta Hotel in Escanaba at 2 p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Part of the program at this time will consist of visual educational pictures on Korea, communism and socialism.

During the last war, the armed services discovered they could quickly train thousands of new recruits through visual aid presentation, which consists of illustrations and charts projected on a screen, during a running commentary. These new techniques now are being employed in many states by Republican candidates and their workers.

All Republican women of the district are urged to attend the meeting November 1, and acquaint themselves with "this new method of revolutionizing a political campaign."

Maybelle Witte
Bride In Lovely
Ceremony Today

Colorful chrysanthemums adorned the altar of Sacred Heart church of Schaffer this morning for the wedding of Miss Maybelle June Witte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Witte, Bark River, R. 2, and Edmond Joseph Lasnoski, son of Mrs. Joseph Lasnoski, Bark River, R. 2.

The 9 a. m. double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Fr. Joseph Beauchene. Traditional bridal music was offered by the Sacred Heart church choir directed by Mrs. Blanche Seymore.

Mrs. Arthur Meyers attended Miss Witte as matron of honor. Mrs. Vernon Dubrock served as her sister's bridesmaid. Mr. Lasnoski was attended by Arthur Meyers, best man, Vernon Dubrock, groomsmen, and Francis Gaudrault, usher.

Bridal Ensembles

A lovely gown of white slipper satin styled with a fitted bodice and yoke and collar of French lace trimming the neckline, formed Miss Witte's bridal ensemble. The long sleeves of the gown tapered to a point over the wrist and a peplum of matching lace was graduated to the back of the full skirt with its Spanish hood of underskirt net. The skirt ended in a court train. Wide bands of matching lace trimmed the bride's fingertip veil of imported silk illusion which was caught to a crown of small seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white baby mums and pink roses tied with white streamers.

The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of moire taffeta styled with sweetheart necklines, full skirts and bustle backs. Mrs. Meyers' gown was of teal blue and Mrs. Dubrock's, American beauty. Mrs. Meyers carried a bouquet of yellow mums and roses. Mrs. Dubrock's bouquet was of white mums and pink roses.

Home In Bark River

Mrs. Witte chose a green dress and brown accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Lasnoski wore a grey print dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore rose corsages.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Lasnoski home for the bridal party. Thirty guests attended the dinner at Bell's restaurant. A reception is being held this afternoon at Potvin's Fireside inn for 250 guests.

The new Mrs. Lasnoski has chosen a blue dress-suit, black velvet accessories and a pink rose corsage for her wedding trip of undisclosed destination.

The young people will make their home at Bark River, R. 2, where Mr. Lasnoski is engaged in farming.

The bride is a graduate of Escanaba high school and has been employed at Bell's restaurant the past two years.

Guests attending the wedding services were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hassenfeldt of Milwaukee, Mrs. Mildred Hassenfeldt and daughter, Joan, Miss Irene Moraski of Ishpeming, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Radue of Cisco, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brisk of Green Bay.

The roadrunner bird of the southwest is protected by federal law.

MOTHER Nature is remarkable, but she still can't jump from summer to winter without a fall. So fall is here, and it's time to get your house plants potted for the long winter ahead. Any woman will have a green thumb if she uses the attractive planters at the Photo Art Shop. An especially large pottery planter comes in dark green, chartreuse, or white. A small one in blue and pink would be darling in a bedroom. From $1.50 to $3.00.

RED about Elgin American. WHITE of you to remind me that you'll be BLUE if you don't get some! You'll find all the beautiful Elgin American gadgets at Garrard Jewelers. Some that deserve a special salute are: loose powder compacts in unusual shapes with shiny gold finish (extra puffs for replacements now available, too!); cigarette cases (some combined with the compacts for compactness!); very feminine cigarette lighters in gold or silver--some with pastel gold tints; star spangled dresser sets. The moveable display to catch the eye in Garrard's window is a clown with a little dog jumping thru a hoop. To hold your attention forever are the Elgin American purse fillers--of these I sing!

HELP! That's the cry of a distraught hostess going down for the third time. Eden's to the rescue with the Hostess Helper. If your entertaining has been on the dull side, why not throw in this life line? A real conversation piece is the nest of four ceramic bowls in maroon, gray, chartreuse, and green. A maroon lid with a gray bow covers all four so they can sit out ready for use and still be clean. Handy for pop corn or potato chips--smart for serving salad, too. With the Hostess Helper from Eden's Gift Shop you'll get along swimmingly!

GIRLS can be awfully eaty; but given something constructive to talk about, they can be complimentary too! The upholstery job on a living room chair received lots of praise last night. And we learned that the price is one any kiddy can afford! So here's a black cat crossing your path with a tale of good luck--Escanaba's lucky to have the Coan Upholstery Shop that offers smart fabrics and skilled workmanship!

THEY'VE hit the leather down at the Office Service Co. So if you're looking for a shaving kit or wallet for that drugstore cowboy who's in the army now, trot down to look over the large selection of leather goods. I took a shine to the sleek, dark brown wallets in Cordovan Leather for only $3.50, tax inc. They shine like patent leather, are quite unusual, and should spur you on to do some early Christmas shopping. They're really coralled some mighty fine leather goods at OSCO.

THE cold shoulder is something to be avoided. You do it with skill when you're wearing a Kolinsky fur from Ward's. The light to dark brown shading and elegant softness make the 4 or 5 skin fur pieces something to prize. Be sure to see Ward's mouton, muskrat and marmoset fur coats, too. Amazingly low priced, amazingly high styled! Some with full sweeping back, others in the new three quarter length.

TRAMP, tramp, tramp the boys are marching! They're the boys in gray... and... the girls in white! Last night 22 of them in caps and gowns finished up some unfinished business--capping the climax of their business training with diplomas from Cloverland Commercial College. Congratulations! I think you were plenty smart to get the competent kind of business training Cloverland offers. The way the business men scramble for those graduates, guess they think so too!

A NEW broom sweeps clean, but when it comes to dirty clothes you've got to have a laundry. Witch one? Are you kidding? I'm up in the air with enthusiasm about the fragrance of clean clothes I have returned from the Escanaba Steam Laundry. I'm an old hag when it comes to my husbands' white shirts. Don't like to do them myself, and when someone else does then I want them spotless! The Escanaba Steam Laundry sails right thru that white washing like magic.

I'M in the dark about the spark. That's in the plug that's near the rug. It plagues my reading lamp! When I suggest to fix it's best. That hubby should, I wish he would--Enthusiasm's damp!

So, O.K., if it's up to me, I'll call Ted's Fix-it Shop. Fixing electrical equipment is child's play to Ted, and I won't be in the dark anymore!

Pick OfficersNominating Group
Is Named Thursday

Selection of a nominating committee to prepare a new slate of officers featured a regular meeting of the Schoolcraft County Sportsmen's club at the gun club building Manistique Heights, Thursday evening.

Named on the committee were Neil Halsey, Herbert Krause, Pete Tatrow, Leon Duquette, Oscar Johnson and Elmer Anderson. They will present their report at the club meeting on Nov. 2, but new officers will not be elected until the first meeting in December.

It was reported that city and rural directors of the club probably will be held over.

The club also authorized the purchase of two bushels of wild rice, most of it to be planted in Jamestown Slough. The group also decided to investigate a report that Black River, in Mackinac county, was to be closed to rainbow fishing next spring. The club secretary was directed to contact the conservation department to ascertain if the report were correct. If correct, he was authorized to enter a protest.

A nerch feed will be put on at the Nov. 2 meeting.

Officers of the club are Larry Hembau, president; Leo Dean, vice president; and Russell Brunet, secretary.

Mobile X-Ray Unit
To Be In City Again
On November 7 to 10

The Michigan department of health's mobile unit, from Lansing, will be back in Manistique from Nov. 7 to 10, inclusive, was reported today by Dr. E. J. Brenner, director of the Alge-Schoolcraft health department.

The service of the unit on this trip will be primarily for adults, especially food and drink handlers.

During its last trip here in January, 1950, the unit X-rayed high school students, teachers, school bus drivers and workers on hot lunch projects.

Technician in charge of the unit is Gunnar Berglund.

Trapper, Attacked By Bear,
Kills Animal With .22 Rifle

After a spine-tingling experience with a trapped bear Thursday, Gordon Tatrow, of Garden, has made up his mind that hereafter he will carry a more powerful weapon than a .22 calibre rifle while tending his trap line.

The bear, a 200-pounder, was lying by the trap when Tatrow approached it. Using his .22 automatic he shot it in the ear, but the animal rose up and took a hefty swing at him. As Tatrow backed away and started pumping bullets into the animal's body, he noticed that the foot which had been caught in the trap had been nearly chewed free by the bear in its effort to escape.

The bear lunged at him viciously but the trapped foot held. Tatrow pumped 17 bullets into its body before it died.

On Oct. 13 Tatrow also caught a bear, weighing 121 pounds, in one of his traps.

Baptist Young
People To Show
Movie On Sunday

Young people of the First Baptist church will sponsor a movie, "South of the Clouds," Sunday evening in the church, Rev. William H. Schobert said today.

Proceeds of the show will be used to purchase a new communion table.

The picture was filmed in the Near East for use with the missionary education movement, and relates the college experiences of Najla, a high caste Moslem, and of Suad, an orphan, who are attending a Christian college in Beirut, Lebanon. Photography of the movie is good and its message on interracial relationships is inspiring, Rev. Schobert said.

The public is invited.

VFW Group Will Have Important
Meeting Nov. 6

The Manistique VFW auxiliary will hold one of its most important yearly meetings on Monday evening, Nov. 6.

The session will include annual inspection, balloting on applicants for membership, and initiation of several new members.

All committee chairmen will be asked to report on their committee plans and activities.

Mrs. John Vaughn of Manistique, who is district VFW president, will not make the inspection because this is her home organization. She has asked Mrs. Ernest Rudolph, of Escanaba, immediate past district president, to perform this duty.

This will be the first meeting at which the new chairman of the auxiliary, Mrs. Samuel Anderson, will officiate. Mrs. Anderson, a former member of the Soo VFW auxiliary, has transferred her membership to Manistique.

Legion Auxiliary
Schedules Dinner
For Monday Night

The Manistique American Legion Auxiliary will have a membership dinner at 6:30 p. m. Monday at the Legion hall on Walnut street. The dinner program will include a talk by Mrs. Diney, of Big Rapids, and other numbers.

Featuring the session will be a shower for the benefit of veterans in the Iron Mountain veterans' hospital. Members are reminded not to forget to bring a gift for this shower.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. John Grimsley, Mrs. Alec Cooper, Mrs. R. Martin, and Mrs. Bertha Harding.

Marquette Ace Scores 25 Points As Manistique Succumbs, 33-6

MANISTIQUE—Bob Redman and Carl Nystrom, co-captains of the Gravenet high school team of Marquette, had a great time last night as their team defeated Manistique, 33-6, in the booster game at A. F. Hall stadium.

Redman, a devastating runner, celebrated his birthday by scoring 25 points. Nystrom, on the other hand, wasn't so fortunate. In tackling a Manistique ball carrier, he rammed his face against his opponent's helmet. Result: Two teeth missing.

Most local fans who saw the game can't figure out how Marquette lost to Newberry. The Gravenets were one of the speediest, slickest teams seen on the local field in a long time.

In fact, they were so fast and eager to move that their aggressiveness cost them about 75 yards in penalties. But they just moved that much faster to offset the penalties.

One Man Show

Redman's one man show was a honey. He ran like a scared deer, several times right through the entire Manistique team.

For instance, he set up and scored the first touchdown midway in the first quarter when he intercepted Francis Eckdahl's pass on the Manistique 27 yard line. Then after the Gravenets had moved to the 7 yard line, he ripped off tackle for the score and Nystrom plunged for the extra point. The score was 7-0 at quarter time.

The Gravenets didn't waste any time chalking up their second touchdown in the second period. On the last play of the first period, Richard Burnis, speedy Manistique back, fumbled on a statue of liberty play and the ball was grabbed by Wayne Stroh, Marquette end, on the Manistique 48. Mixing quick opening line plays with a Jack Doyle-to-Stroh pass, the Gravenets ripped to the 17. Then Redman cut over left tackle and slashed through the secondary to score. The plunge for the extra point failed.

Intercepts Pass

Later in the period, Redman intercepted another Manistique pass and ran to the Manistique 24 but Marquette was clipping and set back to its own 46. Several plays later, with fourth down and 20 yards to go, Redman took a pass from Nystrom and ripped through the Manistique secondary to score. The attempted point was no good and the half ended 19 to 0.

Midway in the third quarter, Redman did it again. With the ball on the Manistique 26 yard line, fourth down and seven yards to go, he took a pass from Boyle and scampered for the score. Frank Young scored the extra point on an end around. That brought the score 26-0.

Hough in Sparking Run

At this juncture, Manistique came through with its only score of the game on a sustained 92 yard drive, mainly on a beautifully 55-yard end run by George Hough, stocky back.

Hough's run took the ball to Marquette's 23. K. Jenkins and Robert Minor drove to two quick first downs and Hough hit left guard for the touchdown on a two yard smash. Evan Karabetos of Marquette blocked D. LaFollette's attempted extra point.

Marquette's last touchdown came with about two minutes to play, with John Karabetos scoring from the one foot line after a 33-yard drive that followed a pass interception by Karabetos. Redman ran the extra point, making his night's effort 25 points and bringing his season's scoring mark to 98 points.

An indication of Marquette's superiority over Manistique was found in the first downs, Marquette 14 and Manistique 6.

Emerald Harriers Beat Marquette

MANISTIQUE—Manistiquehigh school took a shellacking from Marquette in the football game last night but Coach Ted Corombos' cross country boys easily won the exhibition race against the visitors during half time.

Jack Quinn came in first with lots of yards to spare, and behind for second place came Walter Scharstrom. Winning time was 11 minutes 5 seconds. In total points, Manistique was given 15 and Marquette 21, the team with the least points winning.

Third and fourth were William York and Wright, of Marquette. Other places were fifth, William Tufnell, of Manistique; sixth, William Rutherford, of Marquette; seventh, John Louis, of Manistique; and last, Chenoweth of Marquette.

The run was one of the entertainment features of the annual booster game.

New Jersey Griddier Dies Of Broken Neck

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — (P) — A 17-year-old Nutley high school student died last night in medical center, the second high school football fatality of the season in New Jersey.

He was Aaron Nakashian who suffered a broken neck in a pre-season practice session a month ago.

Ben Morrell, 17-year-old captain of the Camden Catholic high school team, died Oct. 17 of injuries suffered in a game the previous Saturday.

Vincent Cody, Jersey City, was reported on the critical list at medical center with a broken neck suffered in a game Oct. 7.

Bark River Trips Rock By 7 And 0

BARK RIVER—An end around, double reverse with Harold Charbonneau carrying the ball eight yards in the fourth quarter gave Bark River a 7-0 victory over Rock in a hard fought ball game here yesterday.

Jack Good, halfback, ran the end for the extra point and that was the scoring for the day.

The touchdown play was set up late in the third period when Quarterback Dale Erickson intercepted Dennis Harju's pass on the Rock 32. Erickson then passed to end Francis Bartozek for a first down on the 22 and "Chief" Tousignant smacked the line for another first down on the 13.

Erickson passed to Bartozek on the Rock 7 and, after a line play had lost a yard, the locals pulled the double reverse to score.

Both teams had several scoring opportunities but couldn't cash in. In the first quarter, a Bark River drive stalled on the Rock 10 yard line. Another one got hung up about the same place.

Later in the first half, Rock drove down field for a first down on Bark River's nine but on fourth down Fullback Onni Kulju was six inches short of a touchdown.

Several plays later, Rock's captain, Bill Westlund, tried a long drop kick that was high and far enough but just wide by inches. Rock threatened again in the third period, going to the Bark River 11 but failing when Westlund dropped a fourth down pass on the goal line.

Bark River's last threat came as the game ended on the 10 yard line.

Endurance Horse Racing Is Hit

DETROIT—(P)—The Michigan Humane society is now going after "endurance horse racing."

Complaints will be filed in any such instance, Cliff E. Johnson, executive secretary, said today.

Johnson said he commented on a case in neighboring Oakland county.

The Oakland County Animal Welfare commission complains that the Huron Valley Saddle club of Milford has been running 30-mile races.

Johnson said he attended a third such race as an observer and found it a "gruelling" contest with the horses "badly spent" at the finish.

"We have found a law under which promoters of such events can be prosecuted and we will do our best to see that they are not repeated," Johnson said.

Sportswriters Meet In Escanaba Nov. 4

Members of the Upper Peninsula Sportswriters association will meet Saturday, Nov. 4, in Escanaba to pick the all Upper Peninsula high school team and to determine winner of the Barber trophy, emblematic of the U. P. high school championship.

Announcement was made today by E. O. (Buck) Erickson of Iron Mountain, president of the association.

Any newspaper in the Upper Peninsula—daily and weekly—with paid up membership in the association will be eligible to attend the meeting and cast its votes for the Barber trophy and for individual players.

Writers will be guests of the Escanaba Daily Press at a dinner in the evening.

Three teams, Menominee, Iron River and Newberry, finished their Michigan seasons with unbeaten records and are in running for the Barber trophy. Menominee, because of its representative schedule and its 73-0 lacing of Soo last night, is odds-on favorite to win the trophy.

Michigan Favored Over Wisconsin By 7 Points

CHICAGO—(P)—Michigan, Ohio State and Purdue were ranked favorites today in a three-game Western conference football program.

Michigan, although losing to Michigan State and Army, was given a seven-point edge over undefeated Wisconsin in the top Big Ten engagement.

The Badgers, in peak physical condition for the Wolverines debut in league action, had rolled past Marquette, Illinois and Iowa. Wisconsin, winner only four times in 21 meetings with Michigan, last defeated the Wolverines 10-0 in 1934.

Purdue, defeated by Miami of Florida last week after a crushing victory over Notre Dame, made its Big Ten start at Iowa and was rated a six point favorite. The Boilermakers were handicapped by injuries to fullback John Kestrest and punter Dick Schnaible. Iowa lost to Indiana and Wisconsin in succession.

Ohio State was rated a 14-point favorite over Minnesota at Minneapolis. The Gophers were gunning for their first win after three setbacks. The Buckeyes, who were surprised 27-0 by Minnesota last year, have bounced Pittsburgh and Indiana the last two times out after dropping their opener 32-27 to Southern Methodist.

In non-league action today, Illinois was host to undefeated Washington, Indiana entertained Notre Dame, and unbeaten Northwestern was home to Pittsburgh. Another midwest clash sent Marquette to Michigan State.

Washington and Indiana were rated seven-point underdogs while Northwestern—with victories over Iowa State, Navy and Minnesota—was given a 13-point advantage over Pitt.

Improved Indiana had high hopes of spilling Notre Dame.

Ferris Trounces Soo Tech, 28-7

BIG RAPIDS—(P)—Ferris Institute rang up three first-half touchdowns and held on easily to defeat Sault Tech 28-7 in a football game here last night.

The Upper Peninsula school's only score came in the second quarter when Bill Saltener ran 10 yards for a touchdown and then kicked the conversion point.

The home team got off to a quick start with a first period touchdown pass to Art Morden and before the quarter was over had added another on John Whalen's 40-yard run.

Jack Kinney carried the ball over for touchdown No. 3 in the second period, and George Menouties hung up final score when he intercepted a Sault pass and went over to score in late minutes of the game.

Bill Cull place-kicked four conversions.

Ferris 14 7 0 7—28

BOXER ELECTROCUTED

CLIFTON, N. J. — (P)—Michael Dolcemasola, 32, who once boxed under the name of Mickey Doyle, was electrocuted yesterday at the Clifton Paper Board Co. Metal he was handling came in contact with an overhead power line, police said.

Roof Caves In On Colonel Blaik

LOS ANGELES — (P) — As a result of his uncompromising evaluation of professional football, Earl (Red) Blaik, head coach at Army, today faced the unhappy prospect of having to prove it.

The colonel may now include among his dissenters about every pro coach in the country; his No. 1 pupil at Army, Glenn Davis, pro players, some college coaches, an assortment of plain citizens and the American Legion.

If Blaik's simon pures are better than the pros, a Legion group said here yesterday, let him prove it on the gridiron.

When the colonel wrote in a national magazine that the pros play "a showman's game and not football," the effect was tantamount to what happens when you spit tobacco juice on an ant hill.

Bring Your Army team out here, challenged Harry Myers, director of events for the Legion's Los Angeles county council. Let the Cadets meet "the third best team in the National football league" in a December charity contest.

"I am sure the country will be interested in your response," wrote Myers, who went to high school with Blaik in Dayton, O. Myers said thousands of people who "know professional football to be superior to college football" will deeply resent Blaik's statements.

Davis, Blaik's most famous performer at West Point, submitted his resentment politely. "I have a sincere respect for Colonel Blaik," said the onetime Mr. Outside, now starring for the Los Angeles Rams. "However, I have found pro football to be a much more demanding sport than the college game."

Blaik's other critics weren't so polite. In fact, some were downright rude, notably Joe Stydahar, head coach of the Rams, said he: "To point out a few absurdities, Blaik says a 190-pound lineman fresh from college can do everything better than a 250-pound pro. That's like saying an amateur lightweight could whip Joe Louis in his prime.

Blaik is stupid. "We're able to drop the Eagles and Bears from our schedule when we found them too tough—as Blaik dropped Notre Dame—we might run up a 23-game unbeaten streak, too."

George Halas, under whom Stydahar played with the Chicago Bears, merely said, "I didn't know Blaik was that stupid."

Otis Douglas, ex-pro player now coaching at the University of Arkansas, remarked: "Pro teams are better equipped with specialists. And there's a big difference in the defensive backfield and offensive line play, with the pros doing each better."

Menominee 73, Soo 0! A lightning fast Menominee high school football team gave fans of Eastern Upper Michigan a lesson in how football is played on the Menominee range when it ground a hapless Soo outfit into turf here last night.

The victory gave Menominee a clean slate in U. P. competition and just about clinches the Barber trophy for the Maroons.

With Coach Morley Fraser of Newberry's undefeated Indians in the stands, the Maroons racked up 20 points in the first period, 12 more in the second and then Coach Ken Radick "threw in the bench" in an attempt to keep the score down.

But the frantic Soo team passed indiscriminately and the Menominee reserves, eager to show their coach how good they were, galloped over for two more scores in the third period and four in the last. In his attempts to keep the score down, Radick even took a boy from the "line sticks."

Menominee's regulars made only four of the touchdowns — the reserves making the other seven. Of the regulars, Lorn Wall got two, Dick Hofer one and Bill Eyer one.

Steves Upset Braves In Last 45 Seconds

Spilling The Dope

By Charlie Larson

Several days ago, we noted a story that the Gladstone Ski club is making plans to improve the clubhouse for winter use.

That brought to mind again that Gladstone has one of the finest community setups in the country for sports and recreation.

In the first place, you'll have to do a lot of driving to find a more beautiful waterfront park than Gladstone has.

Not many cities of ten times the size of Gladstone can boast of a yacht club, harbor, bathing beach, bathhouse and picnic area as our neighboring community.

As many times as we drive along the bayshore, we never fail to get a "lift" from its beauty—especially at night with a bright moon shining on the bay and Escanaba's lights in the backdrop. Gladstone has an active yacht club and its motorboat races draw thousands every summer.

And its golf course near Days river potentially is one of the finest in the peninsula. It is a beautiful course (a tribute to colorful Alex Jolly, who laid it out) and has several tricky holes.

In winter, of course, it becomes the ski club. The natural hills are perfect for skiing. And the club is an active one.

Add to these facilities, Gladstone has good baseball, softball and tennis facilities and an excellent high school football stadium.

Yes, Gladstone people have more facilities for pleasant living than most communities. And they seem to do a good job of using them.

STEPHENSON—In a wild and woolly football game, Stephenson came from behind to score in the last 45 seconds and then hang on desperately to upset Gladstone, 14-7, here last night.

With the score 7-7, Stephenson drove to the Gladstone 30 yard line with less than a minute to go. Pat Moran passed to Ken Hofer on the 15 and Hofer hoofed it the rest of the way to score.

Gladstone took the next kickoff with 20 seconds to go. On the first play, Dallas Knecht passed to Jim LaLonde who went all the way to the Stephenson 20 yard line before being hauled down. The game ended before Gladstone could run another play.

Stephenson scored first in the second quarter on the same pass combination, Moran to Hofer, good for 38 yards. Moran made both extra points for Stephenson.

Gladstone's score came in the fourth quarter when Bobo Cole and Duane Switzer teamed up to lug the ball to the Stephenson 45. Then the husky Cole smashed through the middle and pounded 44 yards to the Stephenson one yard line. Two plays later, Jim Kee crashed over for the score. Tom Cannon b-yoted the point to tie the score, 7-7.

That's the way the game was when Hofer took the game winning pass.

Gladstone winds up its season next week on the home field against Escanaba. Its only victory has been over Manistique, 7-2.

To the Qualified Electors of the City of Escanaba:

"Please take notice that the following ordinance was finally adopted by the Council of the City of Escanaba on September 21, 1950, and is to be submitted to the qualified electors of the city for their approval or rejection at an election to be held therein on November 7, 1950."

GEORGE M. HARVEY,
City Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 211

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING IT EXPEDIENT AND NECESSARY TO IMPROVE AND EXTEND THE GAS PLANT AND SYSTEM OF THE CITY OF ESCANABA, ESTIMATING THE COST THEREOF, PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS TO PAY SUCH COST AND PROVIDING FOR THE PAYMENT OF SUCH BONDS.

WHEREAS, the gas plant and system of the City of Escanaba are in need of improvement and extension in order to protect said plant and system and to make them adequate to serve said city and its inhabitants;

AND WHEREAS, the Council has caused an estimate of the cost of the making of such improvement and extensions to be made, according to which estimate the cost of such improvements and extensions, including expenses properly incident thereto, will be $125,000;

AND WHEREAS, the City does not have funds available for such purpose and desires to issue bonds to pay the cost thereof, pursuant to authority contained in the city charter;

NOW, THEREFORE, the City of Escanaba Ordains:

Section 1. That in order to pay the cost of constructing improvements and extensions to the gas plant and system of the city, including expenses properly incident thereto, there shall be issued the bonds of said city in the amount of $125,000, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of two per cent (2%) per annum, or such lesser rate as may be found to be obtainable at the time the bonds are sold, and shall become due serially in numerical order $12,000 on February 1, 1952 to 1960 inclusive, and $17,000 on February 1, 1961.

Section 2. That the period of usefulness of the improvements for which the bonds are herein authorized is hereby estimated to be not less than twenty (20) years.

Section 3. That if such bonds shall be issued, it shall be the duty of the Council to provide annually for the levy of taxes on all taxable property in the City of Escanaba without limitation as to rate or amount, fully sufficient to pay principal of and interest on such bonds as principal and interest become due.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall take effect upon its approval by the requisite majority of the qualified electors of the city voting on the question of the approval of the ordinance and the issuance of the bonds therein authorized, in such manner as may be provided by resolution of the Council for the submission of such question to the electors.

PETER N. LOGAN,
Mayor.

Stassen Awaits Stalin Answer

World Peace Letter Ignored In Moscow

PHILADELPHIA — (P)—Harold E. Stassen, twice unsuccessful in his bid for the Republican presidential nomination, said today he still is hopeful that Russia's Joseph Stalin "will answer my letter in the interests of world peace."

Stassen, former GOP Governor of Minnesota and now president of the University of Pennsylvania, wrote Stalin Oct. 1 asking for a face-to-face conference to stop "the drift to war."

Yesterday Pravda, Russia's official Communist party newspaper, flatly rejected Stassen's plea for a meeting with the Soviet premier.

Pravda said Stassen was resorting to a dirty, clumsy election campaign trick. It described him as a "shameless warmonger and feverishly active political campaigner with a thirst for self-advancement."

But Stassen, after reading the Pravda denunciation of himself, said in a statement:

"I do not accept the Pravda story as an answer to my Oct. 1 letter to Premier Stalin. * * * I will await an answer from Premier Stalin."

"If he is sincere in his expressed desire for world peace, he will answer me in due time."

California University Is Center Of Fresh Loyalty Oath Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO — (P)—The University of California today was the center of a new loyalty oath dispute.

At a tumultuous meeting of the university board of regents yesterday, John Francis Neylan, San Francisco attorney, said flatly the statewide oath ordered by the recent session of the legislature "must be challenged" insofar as it applies to the university. The regents themselves took the oath, however.

Neylan is the regent who successfully led a year-long fight to force university employees to sign contracts reading "I am not a member of the Communist party."

About the time the university's 11,000-odd employees had signed—except for 18 professors contesting the contract in court and a handful who resigned or were fired—the legislature passed the new oath requirement.

Farm Wife Attacked, Baby Slain By Negro In Central Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — (P)—A Negro sex offender was identified by a 37-year-old farm wife as the man who shot her infant son to death and raped her at pistol point.

Mrs. Kathleen Holley of Calera, a rural community in central Alabama, made the identification from a photograph yesterday.

The Negro, Cooper Drake, was shot down by possemen Thursday, 24 hours after the crime. He is under heavy guard at Jefferson-Hillman hospital.

Sheriff A. E. Norwood said the 28-year-old former soldier was charged with murder, rape, highway robbery and assault with intent to murder.

Mrs. Holley told authorities the Negro shot her four-year-old son as she clasped the child in her arms.

Italian A-Bomb Scientist Skips

Expert Behind Iron Curtain, Papers Say

ROME — (P)—Rome newspapers broke out in a rash of scare headlines today reporting Italian-born British atom scientist Bruno Pontecorvo had skipped behind the iron curtain.

Swedish Airlines officials said he visited Stockholm last month and then flew to Finland. His father in Milan said he doubtless would be back in England on schedule in January.

No one yet has been able to contact Pontecorvo, who became a British citizen during the war and worked on atom research projects in Canada and England. He came to Italy with his wife and three children recently for a vacation.

Under their blackest headlines, Rome's leading morning newspapers said the scientist and his family had departed anywhere from two weeks to a month ago on a Czech Airlines plane bound for Poland. These stories said he left with a Polish passport.

Although none of the newspapers named the source of their information, it had an official tone. They played up the fact that Pontecorvo had worked in Britain's Harwell atomic energy research laboratory where German-born Dr. Klaus Fuchs had been a top official. Fuchs was convicted and jailed on charges of giving atomic secrets to the Russians.

Swedish Airlines officials here reported that Pontecorvo and his family arrived in Stockholm Sept. 1 and flew on to Helsinki, Finland. They did not know what his plans were after that.

Car-Truck Collision Kills Owosso Pair

JACKSON — (P)—Two young Owosso men were killed last night in a car-truck collision on U. S. 12 five miles east of Jackson.

They were John Dingwall, 23, and Gerald Hingspeter, 22. Dingwall was the son of James Dingwall, city editor of the Owosso Argus-Press. Hingspeter was a University of Michigan student.

State police said the pair's westbound car collided with the side of an eastbound truck that was making a left turn into a highway weighing station. The impact sheered off the front end of the victims' car, driven by Hingspeter.

The truck driver, James B. Petrus, was not injured.

Old Age Assistance At Peak In September

LANSING — (P)—The old age assistance load in September hit a peak for "some time," State Welfare Director W. J. Maxey predicted today.

With a case count of 100,695, an increase of 39 in the month, Maxey said new increased old age benefits provided by Congress should cause the case load to drop 1,000 cases in October and another 1,000 in November.

"If it doesn't," Maxey said, "we are going out and find out why."

The aid to dependent children load, Maxey said, dropped 268 cases to 27,233, reversing a seasonal expectation but following a trend noticed last June.

British Housewives Get U. S. Cheese Cheap

WASHINGTON — (P)—Rep. Hugh D. Scott, Jr. (R-Pa.) said last night that the government's sale of 50,000,000 pounds of cheese was "a $7.5 million subsidy" to British housewives.

His statement followed an agriculture department announcement of the sale—amounting to half its surplus stock—to Britain.

The department did not disclose the sale price. Scott said he was reliably informed it was 16 cents a pound. The cost to the government, under price support programs, was 31 cents, he said, and the same type cheese is selling in chain stores now at 42½ cents.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service says most varieties of hawks and owls are valuable as rodent-killers.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines says most U. S. mine fires are checked before they do serious damage.

gain bi-partisan support in the war emergency. As a result of his acceptance, he was read out of the Republican party.

When he left the office for the last time in September, 1945, he had directed the mobilization and use of an 8,000,000-man army that fought in every part of the world and had won praise from defeated German generals for its combat efficiency.

Invasion Condemned

Tall, austere and described as "a New England conscience on legs," Stimson was a Wall Street lawyer whose private practice was continually interrupted by public duty.

He was the unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor of New York in 1910—his only bid for elective office.

During World War I, although in his 50s, he took a colonel's commission in the field artillery and served in action in France.

In 1928, he was governor general of the Philippines, and left that post to head the state department.

He took world lead in condemning the Japanese invasion of Manchuria in 1931—the first of international aggressions that led to World War II in 1939. Stimson was willing to use force, and took the U. S. almost to the point of an ultimatum of Japan. But British and French apathy, plus American disarmament, frustrated his policy.

Government Buildings In Manila Rebuilt By U. S. For $5,000,000

MANILA — (P)—Chairman Frank A. Waring of the U. S. War Damage commission, today turned over three Philippine government war-damaged buildings to the Republic after their reconstruction by the United States.

The reconstruction cost $5,000,000.

The buildings are the legislative building, the agricultural and natural resources building and the finance building.

President Elpidio Quirino and most members of his cabinet were present as Chairman Waring said the reconstructed buildings "stand as an enduring symbol of our friendship and affection."

Television Cuts In On Adult Education

LOS ANGELES — (P)—That old debbit, television, has claimed another victim—adult education.

A nationwide survey conducted by Woodbury college of Los Angeles shows that without exception, cities that have television are showing a decrease in adult night class attendance.

A Cleveland reporter reported that its adult education night class enrollment a year ago was 9,800. It is now 7,800, a drop of 20 percent.

Cities that do not have television are showing a normal increase in adult education. El Paso, Tex., is leading the way with a 40.46 jump.

Giant Bronze Bell Rings For Freedom In Western Berlin

BERLIN — (P)—A giant bronze bell, which will ring out a symbol of freedom 100 miles behind the iron curtain, arrived in West Berlin today.

It traveled through the Russian zone by night aboard a special rail car, and under guard.

U. S. train authorities said, however, that the 10-ton bell passed without incident at the Helmstedt border.

East Berlin newspaper have attacked the "Freedom Bell" as the "death bell" and said it would toll a knell heralding the future arrival of American "gangster troops."

The "Freedom Bell" was sponsored by the committee for the Crusade for Freedom of the National Committee for a Free Europe.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, former U. S. military governor of Germany, chairman of the crusade committee, will dedicate the bell next Tuesday at ceremonies in West Berlin's city hall.

Half Of Korean Red Army Caught In Paratroop Trap

to drive for the Manchuria border. Five Rok divisions were 80 to 85 miles from the politically touchy borders of Red China and nearby Soviet territory. Their drive was gaining momentum every hour.

Arms Thrown Down

Two Rok divisions, the Third and Capital, were rolling north near the east coast.

A United Nations first corps spokesman said the capital infantrymen sliced 30 miles northeast of captured Hamhung Saturday. They were 85 miles from Manchuria and almost as close to Soviet Siberia.

In the west, three other Rok divisions were converging on the Suncheon-Sukchon area where American parachute troops jumped Friday in a daring maneuver to cut off Red Korean remnants north of Pyongyang.

The South Korean sixth division already had linked up with the paratroopers 80 miles south of the Manchuria border. Its position was athwart the two main escape routes to Manchuria.

The fifth air force said aerial observers had spotted many enemy troops walking south of the Suncheon highway with their hands above their heads. The Reds apparently had thrown down their arms.

No Word on General

A Korean Communist broadcast from Sinuiju, on the Manchuria border only a few miles from the Yellow Sea, said the Reds had set up a refugee capital there.

The South Koreans were driving north in hopes of rescuing American and South Korean prisoners whom the Reds were reported taking to the Manchuria border.

Reports on the destination of the Allied prisoners varied. Some said they were being taken to towns in northwestern Korea, others said they were enroute to northeast Korea.

There were no later reports on the fate of Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, commander of the U. S. 24th division. Dean variously had been reported taken to Pyongyang and dead in Seoul.

The parachute drop of 4,100 Americans Friday severely hampered the ability of the Reds to put up resistance anywhere in Korea.

Attempts are being made to extract uranium from gold mine waste in South Africa.

Los Angeles Campus Bonfire Blows Up; Nine Persons Hurt

LOS ANGELES — (P)—A 67-foot homecoming bonfire blew up last night in the middle of thousands of celebrants on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles. The explosion injured nine persons, none seriously. Windows several blocks away were shattered.

Police estimated a crowd of 25,000 students and alumni was gathered around the huge pile when it exploded shortly after it was ignited. Planks and boxes showered on the crowd, gathered on the Bruin practice field.

The injured were treated for cuts and bruises at a hospital and released.

Students had spent weeks gathering the bonfire materials for the celebration preceding today's UCLA-Stanford game. Fortunately the crowd was held back 10 feet by ropes encircling the bonfire.

Campus police said several small bombs, presumably placed by pranksters, were removed from the pile hours before it was ignited but one or more may have been overlooked. He also said a gunpowder fuse used to start the fire may have caused the blast.

Governor Asks Bells To Ring On Tuesday

LANSING — (P)—Governor Williams today asked bells all over Michigan to ring for five minutes beginning at 12:03 p. m., Tuesday.

The bell-ringing is scheduled to occur at exactly the same time as the world freedom bell is being dedicated in Berlin, Germany.

The freedom scrolls, signed by millions of Americans, will be enshrined with the bell.

The governor's proclamation was directed specifically at all state departments, schools, churches, plants, organizations and individuals.

On the same day, the United Nations flag will fly over the Capitol building in Lansing along with the American flag and the Michigan State flag.

Choice Of New UN Secretary Held Up

The U. S., Britain, Norway, Yugoslavia and Cuba let it be known yesterday that they would have no part of the plan, which would have the effect of eliminating Lie from consideration. Ecuador said it would abstain.

This means that the resolution could not obtain the necessary seven affirmative votes and Indian Delegate Sir Benegal N. Rau said he was considering withdrawing it.

Opposed By Soviets

Should he do this the question of the secretary generalship probably would go back where it was last week—in the hands of the veto-laden general assembly.

When the council can not agree on a candidate, it notifies the assembly of this fact and that body then has the authority to extend the term of the incumbent.

Lie's backers, led by the United States, are assured of an overwhelming majority in the assembly to give the Norwegian at least three more years in the $40,000 a year post.

Russia has opposed him violently because he fully supported U. N. action in Korea.

Killed By Train

MONROE — (P)—Mrs. Vivian M. Ainslie, 40, of Monroe, lost her life Friday when her car was hit by a southbound New York Central train at a crossing a mile north of here. Mrs. Ainslie was alone in the car.
